

Dear FCC:

Please do not relax media ownership limits any further than they have been relaxed. The radio airwaves are already filled to the brim with automated, over-commercialized formats that do little to serve the regional communities to which they are broadcast. Further relaxation of ownership limits will only make this problem worse.

Thank you.

Matthew Lasar